

COUNTRY Eastern Germany Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R014500030011-0

TOPIC General Military Information from Eastern Germany

25X1 EVALUATION [REDACTED] PLACE OBTAINED [REDACTED] 25X1

DATE OF CONTENT 20 August to 6 September 1952

25X1 DATE OBTAINED [REDACTED] DATE PREPARED 30 September 1952

25X1 REFERENCES [REDACTED]

PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)

REMARKS

REPRODUCED COPY
DO NOT CIRCULATE

25X1

1. During the period from 2 to 6 September 1952, individual units from Stalag I, south of the Luckenwalde (N 53/X 70) - Frankenfelde and Luckenwalde - Frankenforde road fork, continued signal practices on the east edge of the Jueterbog (N 52/E 69) 25X1 troop training grounds. The units were equipped with a total of 40 trucks, including 12 radio trucks. [REDACTED]

25X1
25X1

[REDACTED] also saw individual M-13 rocket launchers in Stalag I and II and concluded that they had 25X1 previously been in the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik on Industriestrasse, Luckenwalde. *

2. At 3 p.m. on 20 August, a column consisting of 1 sedan, 1 jeep and about 15 trucks, each loaded with a pontoon and about 90 soldiers passed through Beclitz (N 53/E 51) toward Trebbin. [REDACTED] 25X1

25X1

3. At 6:30 a.m. on 30 August, 15 to 20 trucks, 1 radio truck, 1 jeep, 4 x 76.2-mm field guns and between 80 to 100 men were entrained at the Kloster Zinna railroad station north of Jueterbog. [REDACTED] 25X1

25X1

 [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] an engineer unit of the Third Gds Mecz Army which, probably, went to Rehagen via Trebbin. 25X1

25X1
25X1

 [REDACTED] Comment. Probably train [REDACTED] which was previously reported by another source, and on 30 August, went from Forst Zinna to Neuruppin. [REDACTED] Artillery units of the 12th Gds Tank Div fired in Jueterbog in late August 1952. [REDACTED]

25X1

25X1

CLASSIFICATION SECRET